

Join us in applauding the "29 Who Shine," a group of outstanding 2018 public college and university graduates who will be honored at the State House today for their academic achievements, leadership potential and contributions to the civic life and prosperity of the Commonwealth.

29 Who Shine

"I am a big believer in investing in public higher education in Massachusetts. These students are our future, and their obvious talent will translate into a brighter future for us all."
 —George Arwady, Publisher, The Republican

- | | | | | |
|--|---|--|---|--|
|
Liliana Stavrou
Berkshire Community College |
Jocelyn Cabral
Bridgewater State University |
Shik Kumar
Fitchburg State University |
Marissa Tenhouse
Bunker Hill Community College |
Erica Patel
Cape Cod Community College |
|
Savannah Ann
Fitchburg State University |
Sarah Daniels
Framingham State University |
Carter L. Bala
Springfield Community College |
Matthew Wallace
Worcester Community College |
Amanda S. Salsbery
Massachusetts College of Art and Design |
|
Roy Gil
Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts |
Mikayla Rose
Massachusetts Maritime Academy |
Elizabeth Ameer
Massachusetts Maritime Academy |
Jorge Siqueiros
Worcester Community College |
Edwin Champa
Worcester Community College |
|
Kimberly Cook
Worcester Community College |
Robert Sayers
Worcester Community College |
Jessica Calanca
Southern Cross Community College |
Kyle James
Springfield Community College |
Dyanne Dymonah
Fitchburg Community College |
|
Malia Nadeau
Cape Cod Community College |
Elizabeth Stone
Springfield Community College |
Kristin Smith
Springfield Community College | | |
|
Anthony Ty
Worcester Community College |
Chantrelle
Worcester Community College |
Tyler Thomas
Worcester Community College | | |
|
Charles
Worcester Community College |
Anna
Worcester Community College |
Janet
Worcester Community College | | |

Learn more about these students' accomplishments at mass.edu/29whoshine