

Saving Hope

Titicut Follies & Mental Health Reform in Massachusetts

Sponsored by STCC School of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences
MassDevelopment
Baystate Health
Human Services Forum

A Symposium at Springfield Technical Community College on the Institutionalization of the Mentally Ill in the Modern Era

Friday, April 3, 2009

For registration and information on CEUs, please contact Mary Breeding: breeding@stcc.edu
For additional event information, please contact Eric Brown: ebrown@stcc.edu

Scibelli Hall, Building 2, Theater

8:30–9:00 AM

Registration & Light Continental Breakfast

9:00–9:05 AM

Welcoming Remarks: Dr. Arlene Rodriguez, Dean of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

9:05–9:10 AM

Introduction: Eric S. Brown, Assistant Professor Psychology

9:10–9:35 AM

Keynote Address: Frederick Wiseman

9:30–10:40 AM

Titicut Follies

10:45–11 AM

Break

11 AM–12 Noon

Panel Discussion

Scibelli Hall, Building 2, 7th Floor

12 Noon–1:00 PM

Luncheon

Panel Discussion

Moderator

Jennifer Urff, Advocates for Human Potential, Inc.

Panelists

Elaine Hill, Deputy Commissioner, Massachusetts Department of Mental Health

Robert D. Fleischner, Esq. Center for Public Representation

Gregory Bertsch, Ph.D., Psychologist

Rebecca Macauley, Former resident of Northampton State Hospital, Mental Health Rights Advocate

Steven Bradley, member STCC Board of Trustees; Vice President for Government and Community Relations, Baystate Health; former Regional Director, Massachusetts Department of Mental Retardation

Music provided by The Endless.

