

Non-Academic Supports for Students Experiencing Sex-Based Harassment

The Federal law known as Title IX prohibits Sex-Based Harassment in any educational program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance, thus it applies to Springfield Technical Community College.

Sex-Based Harassment means any discrimination based on sex (male, female, intersex), including but not limited to, sexual harassment and harassment based on sex stereotypes, sex characteristics, pregnancy or related conditions, sexual orientation, or gender identity. It includes: quid pro quo harassment, hostile environment harassment, or one of four specific sex offenses: sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence and stalking.

For questions or concerns about Title IX Sex-based Harassment please contact Dr. Kathryn C. Senie, Director of Compliance, Affirmative Action Officer, Title IX Coordinator, & ADA Coordinator. Dr. Senie is located in Building 19 room 153 and can be reached at x 5642, (413) 755-5642 or kcsenie@stcc.edu.
