Who Am I?

My name is Alexander Mackey Kakembo, and I am a nontraditional college student pursuing a Business Transfer degree. I am also the founder of Kembo Heritage Coffee, an international coffee business, and I am passionate about entrepreneurship, leadership and I love playing Chess ♟️

WHY S.A.P?

As a student and entrepreneur, this role gives me an opportunity to represent my school positively and allows me to welcome new students, and support them as they continue their college journey, all while strengthening my communication and leadership skills.
