

Meet the Student Ambassador

NEISSA MENTOR

ABOUT ME

I am from Haiti and currently studying business administration. Guided by my passion for business, beauty, and creativity, I founded Pretty Boss, a clothing brand that uplifts women by celebrating both inner and outer beauty. I enjoy dance, makeup, and everything related to beauty, and I am determined to leave my mark by combining entrepreneurship, creativity, and mentorship to inspire others.

WHY DID YOU BECOME A STUDENT AMBASSADOR?

Since arriving in this country two years ago, my ultimate goal has been to attend STCC, and I have grown so much here. I began with a CNA class, studied English on campus, and took a phlebotomy class before starting my dream path in business. Becoming a Student Ambassador allows me to give back by supporting other students, and I am honored to represent a school that has given me so many opportunities.
