Weekly Writing Support Sessions

Learn how to write powerful college essays with fun techniques! Have you ever heard of the word formula? Did you think it only applies to math and science? Well what if I told you writing has its own formulas too! And they function like mad libs! you know, that classic fill in the blank game. Anyways..

WHAT TO EXPECT:

- This is a lecture-based workshop
- It has a similiar format to an English class except I will train your essay writing skills
- Questions and discussions will be welcome
